Proposed Construction Extension

In the event that you have not started your construction by the agreed upon ninety (90) days or if your construction project is not finished within the three hundred and sixty five (365) day period as agreed upon in the originally issued and approved Zoning Use Permit--Construction, this extension will allow you ninety (90) days from its date of approval to continue your construction plan that was previously approved. In no case would more than four (4) ninety (90) day extensions be issued. If construction has not started by the end of the fourth ninety day period, said construction permit becomes null and void. The allowed three hundred sixty five (365) days to complete the project begins when construction starts. This could give your original permit a two (2) year life. You are required to follow, without alteration, the plan submitted on your original building permit. If more time than four extensions (total of two years including original permit and four extensions) is needed for starting and finishing your project, it would be necessary at the end of the two years for you to apply for another Zoning Use Permit. If the construction project is not completed in the total duration of two years and no additional construction permit is issued, fees could be assessed as deemed appropriate.

Supplemental Information:

I understand that any permit issued on this application will not grant any right or privilege to erect any structure or to use any premises described for any purpose or in any manner prohibited by the zoning regulations of the Village of Atwood. It is further understood that unless construction is started within ninety (90) days and unless construction is completed within three hundred and sixty-five (365) days from the issuance of this permit (unless this period should be extended upon application by the applicant), this permit shall become null and void.

I hereby certify that the above answers are correct and true and that I have read and agree to the above contract:
